WHO'S CREATIVE

can find her at the beach, kayaking, gardening, traveling or even learning to fly fish. She also spends time giving back to the community through a variety of causes, including the Calvert Marine Museum, the Arts Council of Calvert County, Relay for Life, KIDSAVE and the United Way of Calvert County, to name just a few. She also felt honored to create the first poster for the River Concert Series at St. Mary's College of Maryland.

With the love and support of her husband, her mom and her extended family – as well as her self-described “very spoiled fluff dog,” Lily – Crain continues to grow and develop as an artist. She sums it up best: “My art is taking me on an amazing journey.” For those lucky enough to own or enjoy Crain’s work, it’s a journey we hope she continues on for many years to come. ♦

You can contact Ann Crain at 410-586-1765 or ann@anncrainart.com, or visit her website at www.anncrainart.com. She also welcomes guests at her “vista bay studio” in St. Leonard.
